BIOGRAPHY [HARD ROCK]

The Almas are a hard rock, national recording artist hailing from New Munster, Wisconsin. Formed in 2016, the band is curently signed to Wake Up! Music Rocks as of June 2023. The band is composed of Crystal Teigland [lead vocalist], Frank Slifka [founding member/lead guitarist], Josh Sukowski [guitarist], and Andrew Ehredt [drums]. Through guitar driven licks, road dog attitudes, and a high energy, professional live performance, The Almas showcase the truest essence of Rock n' Roll with a modern twist! After working with Kile Odell [#1 Active Rock charting producer], The Almas are able to bring their vision to life on their newest EP 'The Almas II'. The first single "Cage" off the EP took to radio in February 2023 and swiftly shot into the Top 10 on the Mainstream/Active Rock Radio SMR charts.

In 2022 alone, the band has covered over 39,000 miles across the United States and just shy of 100 shows in a still recovering country.

"The existence of this band has always been about helping each other" Frank explains, "whether it's through inspiration, a positive message, or simply creating a fun, entertaining environment where people can get away from life's problems."

Since forming in 2016, the band has released a self-titled EP and two full length albums 'Back To Bad' and 'Truth Sells'. In promotion of their music, the band has performed with artists such as Saliva, Buckcherry, Royal Bliss, Plush, Saving Abel, Eva Under Fire, Wayland, and touring with Smile Empty Soul.

The Almas are well known for their undying commitment to mental health awareness, including their support of numerous Veteran events, specifically Rock2Stop22.

The Almas exists for its fans, because of its fans.
